 WING to circumstances beyond my control, I am unable in this sale to offer the Gen. W. T. Sherman collection as advertised.

Mr. Chas. Coulter, the administrator advises me, that at the present time he is unable to release the collection from storage, and I will try and offer it at some future date.

Every collector will find in the present sale many items to add to his collection, the fractional currency represents probably the finest offered in years.

May I thank all of my clients for their response to my previous sales, and solicit your further patronage.
